

I do not want to be solicited at my private residence and have my rights to privacy be violated. My phone is a private line and not a public means of communications for sales! I would suggest to solicitors to what would interest me is flyers or brochures through the US Mail. That way if I have an interest in their product or service I would contact them.